Mr. Bradley:

Please be advised: I will appear in District Court on Monday, November 23, 2020, regarding my Motion to Deny Pro Hac Vice against EMAGES, Inc. While there I will present to the court your summons stating you have failed to file your appearance and avoiding service in this matter requesting Judge Alonso file a default order or provide a date for which I shall file a motion to default against you.

The only address I have for you is the EMAGES, Inc. address. On or about October 26, 2020, I sent certified mail to EMAGES with 3 copies of the complaint and 3 Summons; one for EMAGES, Inc.; one for Hattie Wash; and one for you, Thomas Bradley. The Summons reports everyone had 21 days to file their appearance. Attorney Derrick Thompson filed his timely appearance for EMAGES, Inc. and Hattie Wash on November 13, 2020. You have failed to file your appearance. In addition, On October 28, 2020 I sent you copies of the complaint and summons via email because I did not have your residential address.

Wherefore, you have been noticed. I am attaching the email for October 28, 2020 sent to you, along with all defendant summons and signed certified email receipts from EMAGES, Inc. and the Attorney General Office in Chicago.
